CONCENTRATING THE ARMY.

Fort Halleck to be Abandoned.

The policy of concentrating the United States troops in the West a large military posts lately recommended by the War Department, seems to have been speedily adopted, as orders for the abandonment of the various posts in this State, including Fort Halleck, have, we are reliably informed, says the Elko Independent, already been issued. The wisdom of withdrawing all the troops from Nevada, leaving her without Government protection against any and every emergency that may arise, is, to say the least, extremely questionable. The large number of Indians in this sparsely settled portion of the State, should they feel so disposed, could inflict great injury upon the whites, making it a very undesirable place of abode, and though at present peaceable enough, it is impossible to determine to what extent the presence of the military conduces to the fostering of aboriginal friendliness toward the whites. About the only direct advantage the State has ever drawn from the general government has been through the small military posts within her borders, and it now appears that even this recognition of our Statehood is held to have been too great a concession to so insignificant a factor of our Union.

If troops are to be quartered in any part of the State, no better post than that at Halleck could be selected for the purpose, as it presents advantages from a military point of view presented by none other in the State, for while it is in the heart of the Indian country, it is also in the midst of a fine agricultural region, where forage and supplies are abundant and cheap, which, with the railroad close at hand for the speedy dispatch of troops in case of emergency, renders it the most eligible position for a camp in the country. An immense amount has been expended in the construction of buildings and other improvements, and a much larger number of men than the usual quota might be quartered at Halleck with very little additional expense.

FUTURE AMUSEMENT FEATURES.

A Complete Circus on the Stage—Manager Leavitt's Latest Scheme.

M. B. Leavitt, the king of managers, has been interviewed by a Denver paper. Annexed is a portion of what was said:

"Are you securing any novelties for the future?"

"Yes, I have several things in view. Not least among them is a whole circus, to travel about the country and be produced in theaters alone."

"What a complete circus—horses and all?"

"Yes sir, a complete circus, in all that the word implies," returned Mr. Leavitt, smiling at the reporter's incredulity. "I will cover the stage with a rubber ring—something novel, and perfectly feasible—and therein I will have everything that can be found in a well regulated circus. Circus performances have already been given in theaters in New York, Boston, and Philadelphia, but I will be the first to attempt to send a company throughout the country, fully equipped and able to show in any average sized opera house in America."

Stanford's Irrigation Scheme.

Governor Stanford has under consideration a grand irrigation scheme, which, if executed, will surpass anything of the kind before attempted in this State. It is to create immense reservoirs in Lytle creek, Santa Ana and Mill creek canyons, conserving, of course, existing water rights, and providing in their stead a uniform supply, and by storing the Winter water create a supply sufficient to irrigate a scope of country including the entire plain between San Bernardino and Pomona, as well as San Bernardino Valley and the plains lying east of Riverside.—[San Bernardino Times.]

John, said the cashier's wife, dropping into the bank in the midst of a shopping trip, "you forgot to leave me that money this morning." "What name?" asked the cashier, without looking up. "Name?" exclaimed the lady, "I am your wife." "No doubt, no doubt," answered the cashier mechanically and going on with his writing, "but you will have to bring some one to identify you."—[Phil. News.]

No one need feel so bad about the American round dance. The most popular dance in Hungary is one in which every man hugs two women at once, and Hungary is getting along right smart as a country.—[Virginia Footlight.]

George W. Bryson is doing a good and steady business at his Wine Rooms, opposite the V. & T. R. R. depot. George is one of Carson's own boys and ought to have a liberal support.—[Carson Tribune.]

From all appearances room rent will be high in Carson this year. There will be a good healthy lobby, and the "promoters" will be numerous.—[Carson Appeal.]

The fire plugs are deserving of a holiday present.

RUSSELL & BRADLEY'S RANCH.

Some Fine Stock—Horsefords and Short-Horns.

The Elko Independent of last Saturday, has the annexed interesting account of fine stock owned by Russell & Bradley, in that county:

"The reward of a visit to the ranch of Russell & Bradley, the well known stock men, just above town, yesterday, was a view of some of the finest young blooded stock that can be found in the State—or out of it, for that matter. Mr. Russell made a trip to Illinois this Fall for the express purpose of procuring fine breeds with which to improve the stock on the various ranches of the firm, and the animals referred to above are those purchased and brought here by rail a few days ago. The lot consists of ten thoroughbred Hereford bulls, one cow in calf, and two grade heifers, all from the celebrated Hereford stock ranch of C. M. Culbertson, of Chicago, the well known importer of thoroughbred stock. 'Anxiety,' a two-year-old, whose sure took first prizes at the royal fairs of England in 1897-8 and '9, also first prizes at the Illinois State fair over all ages of Hereford bulls in the latter year, is beyond all doubt one of the finest animals ever brought to this country. With short, heavy legs; immense length and depth of body; heavy coat of curly, silken liver-colored hair, and faultless in form, he is a perfect pastoral picture. A couple of yearlings, lighter in color, shorter in body but of great breadth of beam, next claimed attention. They are from imported 'Sir Garnett,' now at the head of Mr. Culbertson's herd, and judging from his offspring, the sire is second to none that ever crossed the water.

Attention was next directed to seven yearlings with long, low bodies and heavy white bristlers, sons of the fine imported bull 'Landlord,' now the property of Messrs. Scott & Hank, Halleck. This animal was imported from England at the age of two years, after taking the first prize of his age at the Royal cattle show. He was pronounced in Chicago to be one of the very best bloods ever brought to America, and his progeny fully verify that decision. Two bull calves and three two-year-old heifers in calf comprise a lot purchased from Scott & Hank last Fall, for which Russell & Bradley paid the sum of $2,000. These are as fine as careful and intelligent breeding can secure. In the lot brought out by Mr. Russell were also a thoroughbred Hereford cow, in calf—a magnificent animal—a couple of graded heifers; the difference in blood being only distinguishable by expert stock men.

Taking the entire lot, including the grades, and we doubt if these animals can be excelled in quality anywhere in this country, and the enterprise of this stock firm in assisting to such a great extent in furthering a much needed improvement in the breed of Nevada cattle, is well worthy of commendation."

Railroad Exhibition Car.

The Northern Pacific exhibition car was in Chicago the other day on its homeward trip, having made the tour, since September 15th, through Illinois, Missouri, Iowa, Indiana, Michigan, Ohio, Pennsylvania, New York and Maryland. The car is a miniature agricultural fair on wheels, containing very fine specimens of the agricultural and mineral products of the country along the line of the Northern Pacific Railway. There is an exhibition in the car wheat five feet in height, averaging from thirty to sixty bushels to the acre, oats six feet in height, averaging ninety to one hundred and eleven bushels to the acre, barley four feet in height, averaging thirty-six bushels to the acre and weighing fifty four pounds to the bushel, rye, averaging fifty bushels to the acre; potatoes, of twenty different varieties, averaging from twenty to 100 bushels to the acre, thirty-five varieties of wood from the Minnesota forests; forty varieties of grasses, from one to nine feet in height, and exceedingly fine specimens of vegetables of all kinds; coal from Dakota, and Montana iron, copper, lead and silver ore of the finest grades. The car during its travels has been visited by about 200,000 people. The products are attractively arranged and give a fine impression of the riches and productivity of the Northern Pacific country.

Regarding the Civil Service Reform agitation, Brown of Georgia, in his speech, very accurately expressed the Democratic views. He said:

"For more than twenty years past the patronage of the Government has been in the hands of the Republicans, the Democrats obtaining scarcely any of it. Now that the handwriting appears on the wall saying the party in power has been weighed in the balance by the people and found wanting, it may be wise on the part of the Republican leaders to do all in their power to secure the passage of a law to retain the Republican officeholders in office after the people have commanded a change in the Administration, but it would be very unwise on the part of Democratic statesmen to give their assent to such a measure at this time. When we have inaugurated a Democratic President and secured a fair share of offices to the Democrats, it will be a proper time to consider and act upon the Civil Service measures."

A railroad through Monitor Valley, this county, is what our mining men are praying for now. A railroad is certainly what is needed in this part of the State.—[Belmont Courier.]

The Chronicle reports that another man is coming to Carson to start a newspaper. He should be met by the other editors marching in procession.—[Carson Appeal.]

PRIZE BOOKS FOR SUBSCRIBERS.

The Weekly Journal's Clubbing Arrangement with the Cincinnati Commercial.

Having made arrangements to club the WEEKLY JOURNAL with the Cincinnati Weekly Commercial, we announce that we will furnish the WEEKLY JOURNAL and the Cincinnati Weekly Commercial, a large 8-page, 55-column family newspaper, printed from large, clear new type, and furnishes more reading matter for the money than any other newspaper in the county, the issue of each week containing over twenty-two square feet of printed matter, and is not surpassed for news, business reports, literary and select reading, one year for $3 50, and will give as a free prize to each yearly subscriber under this clubbing arrangement any one book he may select from the following famous works—postage paid and free of all cost—the books being unabridged, beautifully printed on good paper in paper covers: Tennyson's Poems; The Arabian Nights; The Narrative of the Jeannette Arctic Expedition, by Lieut. Danenhower; The Mill on the Floss, by George Eliot; Wood's Natural History for Boys, (300 illustrations); East Lynne, by Mrs. Henry Wood; Vennor's Almanac for 1893; The Swiss Family Robinson; A Treatise on the Horse and His Diseases, by Dr. B. J. Kendall; The Woman in White, by Wilkie Collins; History of the Kingdom of Ireland; Waverley, by Sir Walter Scott; A Brave Lady, by Miss Mulock; The Bible Dictionary; Lady Audley's Secret, by Miss Braddon.

It will be noticed that our selection of prizes covers an extraordinary range and variety of the brightest and best books.

BREVITIES.

Gen. Davis is back from the Bay.
Yesterday's fire somewhat demoralized the Journal force.

Frank Bell will leave in a few days to build a telegraph line from Hawthorne to the Mt. Corby mine.

Col. Bernard, of Fort Bidwell, has been ordered to Fort Worth, Texas, and left here last night for his new post.

Remember the M. E. dinner and concert this evening. The programme is a good one. Not even standing room last night.

Very elegant Christmas gifts of the latest styles may be had at Queen's drug store for a very small amount of money.

Dr. Pierce's "Pleasant Purgative Pellets" are sugar-coated and inclosed in glass bottles, their virtues being thereby preserved unimpaired for any length of time, in any climate, so that they are always fresh and reliable. No cheap wooden or pasteboard boxes. By druggists.

The regular annual meeting of the stockholders of the Oro Water Ditch Company will be held at the office of the Company, at the Reno gas works, on Saturday, January 6th, 1883, at 2 o'clock P. M., for the election of Trustees and the transaction of such other business as may come before the meeting.

A Free Gift.

The Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific Railway, have in press an almanac and hand book of useful information, containing a vast amount of matter which is handy to have available, and which all classes of people want sometime during the year. The book contains descriptions of the Western States and Territories, a list of U. S. Land Offices, where lands are available at low rates, how obtained, etc., etc., as well as interest tables, business law, rates of postage and political facts and figures. In fact it is a multum in parvo, and all the more so of every day use.

The same road also publishes a Christmas book for children, which contains several fine illustrations, and is original matter, and a very fine piece of sheet music, arranged for piano and a quartet of voices.

Either, or both of these books and the music will be sent post free, if requested, by postal or letter. The earlier your name is sent to E. St. John, General Ticket and Passenger Agent, Chicago, the quicker you will get the books.

The Coats Tavern Burned.

At 4 o'clock yesterday morning fire was discovered in the attic of the Coats Tavern (formerly Wintermantel building), on Centre street, and although every effort was made to save the property the building is now but a wreck. There was an insurance of $4,000 on it, which amply secures Mr. Hoffman from loss. Mr. Coats succeeded in saving almost all of his fixtures and furniture, but his loss is considerable, which he is fully able to stand at this time. There was no wind, luckily, while the Tavern was burning. Had there been the Palace, Arcade and Depot Hotels, and Hammond & Wilson's large stable would have been destroyed.

A Petition for the Repeal of a Law.

Senator Brumsey has been circulating two petitions on the Comstock. One calls for the repeal of the law which exempts $120 of a man's monthly salary, and the other protests against such repeal. The petition for repeal has received many signatures, while the one against repeal has not a single signature.

ARABIAN EVERGREEN MILLET.

The Most Valuable Grass for Hot and Dry Climates.

Last Fall a sample of Arabian grass, or evergreen millet, was brought to the Silver State office from the ranch of J. W. Brown, near Unionville. The stalks were about seven feet long and contained long bunches of rich grain like seed. An item relative to the grass was published in the Silver State, and several letters were received asking for more information about the grass, where seed could be procured, etc. Now we find the following on the subject in an agricultural exchange: "This grass is no new thing. It has been grown for hay and pasture on the driest lands of the Old World from the earliest record of any plant grown for feed or pasture. It originally came from near the ancient city of Aleppo, in Arabia, situated between Jordan and the Euphrates, a semi-desert region, famed for the production of this grass. It has been grown for many years on the dry lands of New Zealand, Australia and some of the Southern States (lands too dry to produce other grasses), which is a sufficient guarantee of its success anywhere on this coast. It is the most valuable plant known in the hot, dry climates. It is a millet of very vigorous growth. It has been tried on all kinds of soils and a variety of climates, and everywhere has been a perfect success. The grass makes more hay during the year than alfalfa, and of a superior quality, besides containing a rich, grain-like seed. It is the coming grass, both for grazing and making hay; is succulent, containing saccharine matter; very valuable for dairymen, stock-growers and farmers generally. The points of superiority, in addition to those already referred to, are: 1st. It is a large grain-producing plant, and will mature 1,000 pounds of seed to the acre. 2nd. No animals ever bloat from eating it. 3rd. It makes a greater Winter and Summer growth than any other forage plant. 4th. All kinds of stock eat it with the greatest avidity. 5th. It cannot be injured by flood, drouth, freezing or gophers. 6th. Wherever sown it will thoroughly establish itself, running out all kinds of weeds, etc., without any help whatever. The following is the result of a trial in New Jersey: Four pounds of seed were sown to the acre, in drills 18 inches apart. Just 45 days after sowing the first crop was cut. It was then seven feet high, and the crop weighed thirty tons to the acre, and when dried, six and one-half tons. Forty-five days after the first cutting it was cut again and yielded forty-five tons to the acre in the green state and eight tons when dried. A third cutting was made late in the Fall, which produced one and one-half tons of hay to the acre."

Government Artesian Well.

The Government artesian well, 100 miles east of Denver, on which work has been prosecuted for the past year, has proved a complete success. On the 5th instant eight feet of loose gravel, with a sandstone foundation below it, was struck, tapping a subterranean stream, which sent up to the surface an inexhaustible flow of clear, pure water. The Enterprise thinks this fortunate result of an experiment, about which so many people of the West have felt so deep an interest, will greatly encourage private enterprise of this kind in Nevada and elsewhere to secure water for irrigating purposes and the reclamation of desert lands. Persons who are familiar with the locality in which this Government well was bored will admit that there is not a valley in Nevada which does not afford a more promising site for a well of the kind. Our valleys are all surrounded with high ranges of hills, on the tops of which are found living springs. When water rises on the top of the rim of a basin a hole bored through at the bottom ought to bring forth a still more abundant supply.

Working Low Grade Ores at a Profit.

The annual reports of the Sierra Buttes and Plumas-Eureka mines, both now owned by English companies, give some interesting figures in showing that ores of a low grade can be worked at a margin of good profit. The Sierra Buttes mine produced for the year 19,437 tons of quartz, mined at a cost of $4 10 per ton, and milled at 60 cents per ton, making the average working expenses $4 70 per ton. The average yield of the ore in free gold was $6 47, and with the tailings $7 06 per ton. The yield of the Plumas-Eureka was 29,555 tons. The cost of mining $3 10 per ton, and milling 48 cents per ton, or a total of $3 58 per ton. The average yield of the ore in free gold was $6 88 per ton.

Goods for Cash.

Jerry Schooling has issued his manifesto. It appears elsewhere. It is his intention to put his business on a cash basis after the first of January and give his customers the advantage of low prices. His idea is a good one, and if more of the merchants would follow his example everybody would be happier, richer and better off every way.

To The Public.

One the 1st of January, 1883, I propose to place my business on a cash basis which will enable me to supply those who will give me their patronage with the best quality of goods at much lower prices than they have heretofore been paying. It is a plain fact that the credit system as carried on by business houses, compels those who do pay to make up the losses occasioned by those who do not fulfill their obligations. I am aware that Cash vs. Credit has been a theme of discussion these many years, but those who pay their bills know that the theory is perfect. And I shall offer goods at such prices that those who shall trade with me will never regret that they assisted in reducing the theory to practice. The new plan will enable me to increase my large and varied stock. I will transact my business strictly in accordance with the cash system; pricing goods with regard to quality. I will handle none that are of a doubtful quality. Please call or send for a price list which will be out January 1, 1883. Respectfully,
JERRY SCHOOLING.

Journal's Holiday Book.

The JOURNAL's illustrated Annual for 1883 will be distributed to subscribers about the 20th. Every subscriber of the Daily and Weekly JOURNAL will certainly appreciate it. It will have fifty illustrations on wood, chiefly by Darley, Moran, Schell, Whitney, Woodward and other celebrated American artists. The cover is an exquisite piece of the Aldine's best. The contents of the Annual are as instructive as interesting. The almanac portion is complete in every way. The book is the best ever yet gotten out for the purpose for which it is intended.

An Important Land Decision.

Secretary Teller decides that lands within the limits of grants to railroad companies, to which the pre-emption or homestead claims were applicable at the time the grant took effect are excluded from railroad grants, and upon the abandonment of such claims the lands do not inure to the companies but are restored to the public domain; that erroneous entry in the Register's office, if ordered corrected, should not prejudice the claim of the applicant.

Fine Job Work.

The JOURNAL job office has just received a large and fine stock of paper, cards, inks, etc., for job printing and is prepared to take orders for every description of work in the printing line. Only skilled workmen are employed in the job room and no inferior work is allowed to leave the office. Compensating prices are charged for every job and satisfaction guaranteed. Call and examine our specimens and leave your orders.

Now Is Your Chance.

Miss M. A. Harney is selling out her entire stock at reduced rates. She accordingly invites all the ladies to come and examine her stock and assures them they may obtain all millinery and fancy goods at a great bargain, as she must dispose of her present stock.

To make a cord of wood go a great way leave it out of doors. It has been known to go two miles.—Carson Index.

Homographic Chart.

J. B. Griffin, of Virginia City, has collated most of the necessary data for a Homographic Chart of the Nevada State Government for the year 1883, which will be published immediately after the organization of the Legislature next month. The Chart will contain a full record of the names, official position, age, politics, nativity, profession, etc., of every member of the State government, including our United States Senators, Representatives in Congress, Judicial and Executive officers, members of both Houses of the Legislature, officers and attaches of both Houses, etc. It will be elegantly printed on heavy calendered book paper, 20x24 inches in size, suitable for framing, and will thus form a handsome ornament as well as a useful work of reference.

A Significant Fact.

[S. F. Post.]
Washington Territory has gained 3,733 votes since 1880. The Republican vote gained 28.6 per cent. in that period. It is a noteworthy circumstance that in all the agricultural sections of the Union that have generally gained in population by immigration, the increase in the vote has been largely Republican. This is the case in Washington Territory, Dakota and Nebraska. The lesson of this is that the agricultural class, which naturally inclines to the observance of law, order and industry, finds its proper place in the Republican ranks. The industrious and lawabiding foreigner as a rule gravitates to the Republican party as soon as he is invested with citizenship. The recent immigration into far Western States and Territories is largely composed of quiet and industrious people from the agricultural districts of the older States, and these people also are naturally Republicans. Intelligence, good order, industry and progress are strong features of Republican doctrine, and attract to the ranks of that party people who practice those virtues, while such principles are naturally repellent to the classes who make a trade of politics—those who consider the suffrage a thing for barter—and the law defying and disorderly.

The Bowl of Presidents.

An able editor has discovered that the lake shore seems to be good soil for Presidential candidates. Harrison started on his career near Toledo; Fillmore made his career at Buffalo; Lincoln and Douglas became celebrated at Chicago; Grant lived at different periods at Sackett's Harbor and Detroit; Hayes lives near Sandusky; Garfield was bred on the lake shore; Grover Cleveland, the new potent, is a Lake Erie man. The lacustrine basin is the bowl of Presidents.—[Cincinnati Enquirer.]

Advertising Medium.

The advertising columns of the JOURNAL afford an excellent opportunity to our readers to study out where purchases of all kinds can be made on the most advantageous terms. All classes of goods can there be found advertised from a suit of clothes or nice silk dress to the daintiest ornament in the jewelry line. The JOURNAL reaches nearly every family as well as business house in the county, and, therefore, advertisers seek its columns that the public may know what they have for sale.

DR. SPINNEY

NO. 11 KEARNEY ST.

Treats All Chronic and Special Diseases.

YOUNG MEN.

WHO may be suffering from the effects of youthful folly or indiscretions, will do well to avail themselves of this, the greatest boon ever laid at the altar of suffering humanity. Dr. Spinney will guarantee to refund $500 for every case of Seminal Weakness or private disease of any kind or character which he undertakes and fails to cure.

MIDDLE-AGED MEN.

There are many at the age of thirty to sixty, who are troubled with too frequent evacuations of the bladder, often accompanied by a slight smarting or burning sensation, and a weakening of the system in a manner the patient cannot account for. On examining the urinary deposits aropy sediment will often be found, and sometimes small particles of albumen will appear, the color will be a thin milky; it has, again changing to a dark and torpid appearance. There are many men who die of this difficulty, ignorant of the cause, which is the second stage of seminal weakness. Dr. S. will guarantee a perfect cure in all such cases, and a healthy restoration to the genital-urinary organs.

Office hours--10 to 4 and 6 to 8. Sundays from 10 to 11 A. M. Consultation free. Thorough examination and advice, $5.
